Subject: can't make it to book club :(

Harriet,

Sorry to start your night off with a bummer, but I can't make it to book club tonight. Dr. Crain's asked me to stay late, and I'd normally try to get out of it, but some new specimens came in at the last minute and they're proving to be really time-sensitive. I know we were looking forwards to catching up -- maybe we can meet up later this week? I know it's hectic now that you're back, but I'm free later this week if you have the time.

All my love,
Tasha

Hey Tasha,

I'm sorry to hear that, I was looking forwards to catching up. I'd love to meet up, and I'll send a redacted copy of my schedule as soon as I'm able. Expect an email by tomorrow afternoon at the latest.

Here's to hoping Dr. Crain won't keep you too late. Avoid touching the office coffee pot if you can, and as always, stay safe.

Hugs,
Harriet
